If notifications are not delivered to LINE or ANPIC app and the other notes

If notifications are not delivered, please check the following points. (* The names of the screens may vary according to your smartphone.)

If receiving notifications via LINE

1. Unblock the ANPIC account.
2. Update LINE to the latest version.

If receiving notifications via the ANPIC app

1. Turn on push notifications in your smartphone device settings
Settings → Notifications → ANPIC
Settings → Apps → Manage apps → ANPIC
Settings → Sound and notifications → Manage notifications
2. Update app to the latest version.

In both cases [2-1]

If an app is not used for a certain period of time, the phone may automatically remove the app or limit the app's functionality. This will affect the ANPIC app and you will not receive notifications from ANPIC. Please refer to 2-2 on the right for how to deal with this issue.

- ★ Manual videos, Q&A sites, etc. are also available.
Please log in to ANPIC on the web with your own account, and click “関連サイトリンク集[Links to Related Sites]” in the menu.

Be careful in the future

- Do not delete app even if LINE is set.
- Do not log out of app regardless of settings.
- Only one device can be configured with an app per account.
(Even if installed on multiple devices, notifications are sent only to the last device that installed or took action.)
- Log in to app again after changing your smartphone.
- Keep updated the latest version of LINE and app.

In both cases [1]

1. Check the “Account Settings” screen on the website. If your device information is not displayed, log out of the ANPIC app and log back in.
2. Check your OS version.
Recommended OS: iOS 14~16, Android OS 9~13
3. Verify that you do not have multiple communications devices connected to a single Wi-Fi connection.
4. Disable battery saver/low-power mode (Android only)
5. Disable Wi-Fi optimization(Android only)
6. Check the settings of any antivirus/task killer type apps. (Android only)

In both cases [2-2]

* The item name may differ depending on the device.

【iPhone】

[Settings] → [iTunes Store and App Store] → [Remove Unused Apps] is turned off.

* If [Remove unused Apps] is turned on, all Apps will be removed automatically. When [Remove Unused Apps] is turned on, all Apps will be removed automatically, but you can select any App and remove it by the following method. However, you can select and remove only the apps you want by using the following method.
With [Remove unused Apps] turned off [Settings] → [General] → [iPhone Storage] → [(App to be removed)] → [Remove App].

* Do not turn on the ANPIC app.

【Android】

Turn off the automatic deletion setting of permissions and the pause setting of apps by following the steps A or B.

A. [Settings] → [Apps and Notifications] → [ANPIC] → [App Info] → Turn off [Remove permissions when app is not in use].

B. [Settings] → [Apps] → [Manage Apps] → [ANPIC] → [Permissions] → Turn off [Delete permissions to increase free space]
